Blaby October 2021 Report

Bouskell Park Community Day

On Saturday 28th August Blaby DC welcomed visitors to Bouskell Park Community Day as part of the "Buried Bouskell" Project. This £173,000 project has been funded by Blaby DC and the National Lottery Heritage grant of £156,000k.

Around 800 people attended the event and took part in a range of family friendly activities. The newly restored Ice House was open for people to see inside. The finds from the archaeological dig were also on display alongside the new Bouskell Park guided walk leaflet.

Residents Returning to the Leisure Centres

Since Enderby and Huncote Leisure Centres re-opened in April there has been an encouraging trend of increased usage.

The Leisure Centres have also re-introduced swimming lessons and exercise referral scheme.
